Dear ResearchGate user:

Most of my publications are publicly available, either because they are published in open-access venues, or else as preprints at arxiv.org.

You can find links to open-access or preprint manuscripts at

<https://cnets.indiana.edu/fil/papers/>

PLEASE NOTE: in rare cases when neither open access nor preprint links are found at the above page, that means the manuscript's full text is only available from the publisher and cannot be shared on ResearchGate, as it would violate copyright.

It's no use to request a full text via ResearchGate, therefore I do not respond to such requests.

Sincerely yours,

Filippo Menczer
